Shelia,
 you are one of the:
 cutest,
 sweetest, (I'm not kidding)
 nicest,
 prettiest,
 darlingest girls in R.H.S.

That's all I all I can think of now - describe but I sure there are many more adjective to describe you

Purple Spirit, '58

Time blurs the picture of the past, but try for a moment to put 1958 back into focus and remember some of the things that set it apart from other years . . .

The Space Age began with the launchings of Sputnik and Explorer . . . little red, green, and black lunch tokens went into circulation . . . the word in fashion was "chemise" . . . football and basketball district championships went to the Eagles . . . Richardson's first permanent school ring was worn by this year's seniors . . . up-raised hands signaling "V" for victory revived an old R.H.S. tradition . . . Dallas's modern Love Field terminal opened . . . the "Eagles' Nest" came into being . . . Richardson and the nation fought off Asian flu . . . upon completion of the tennis courts, "racquet fever" skyrocketed . . . the words to the school song were revised . . .

. . . And the Purple Spirit reigned over 1958, in every extra effort, every searching thought—or carefree laugh. The Purple Spirit is an unseen, but vital force in R.H.S. You felt it sometime this year—at a game, a dance, during a last-minute practice, or racing to a deadline. Now, Richardson High School is a part of you; and you gave something of yourself to it, through this Spirit.

The Purple Spirit was the theme of the year; and so will it be the theme of this, the book of the year.

CURRICULUM

Administrators Advise

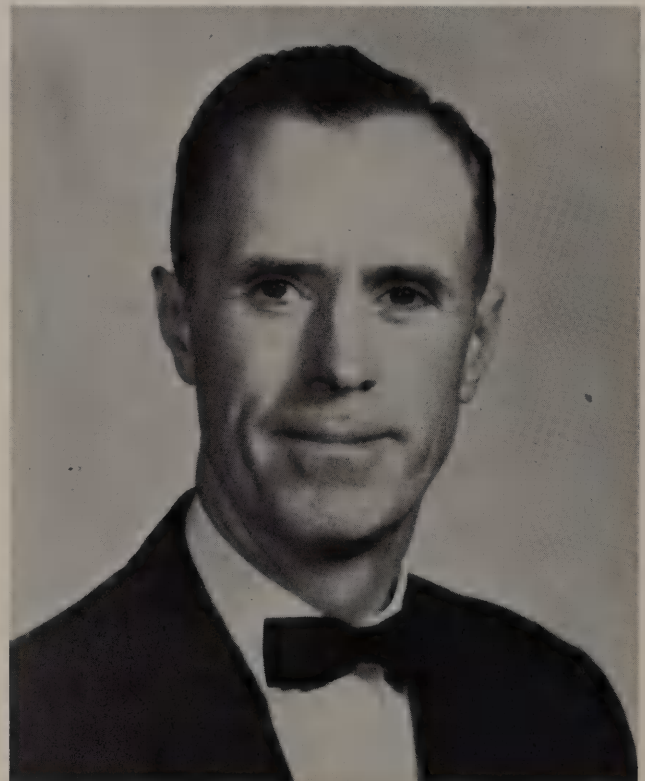

BILL B. PASSMORE
Principal

Mr. Passmore is in his second year as principal of Richardson High School. His main duty is the coordination of the entire school program. No matter how busy Mr. Passmore is, he is willing at all times to help students with their problems. His all-inclusive job certainly does not end at 3:30 Monday through Friday, but continues into all phases of school life, such as athletic activities and school dances.

OLIN T. FOSTER
Assistant Principal

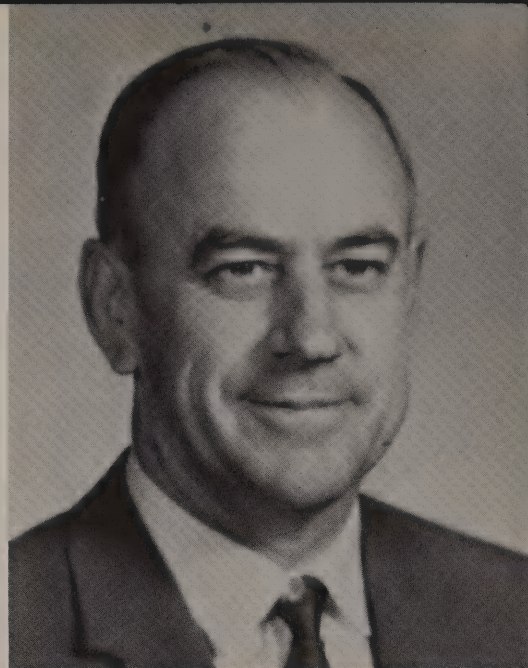

Mr. Foster, assistant principal, is always busy helping Mr. Passmore in his work. His many duties include discipline and student attendance. In the absence of the principal, Mr. Foster has the responsibility of keeping R.H.S. running smoothly.

J. J. PEARCE

For twelve years, Mr. Pearce has served Richardson as school district superintendent. His responsibilities vary from hiring all personnel to enforcing policies set up by the school board.

Although the business aspect of maintaining the Richardson schools is necessary, Mr. Pearce feels that responsibilities to the students come first.

CLEMENT S. FOX

Student Counselor Mr. Fox is a busy man around the halls of R.H.S. However, students may be assured that he is always available for vocational, personal, or educational counseling. In addition to this full-time job, Mr. Fox plans the weekly assembly programs. The permanent records made by students, beginning in the freshman year of high school, are also handled by him.

CLARENCE L. GREEN

Co-ordinator of Richardson Public Schools is Mr. Green's title. His many duties include general supervision of school-wide programs, adult education, and revision of all courses of study and curriculum guides. To inform the public of school programs, Mr. Green works with the superintendent, preparing and distributing pamphlets and brochures.

Richardson's Unsung Heroes

School policy is decided by the school board, consisting of: R. L. Johnson; E. G. Gatlin, vice president; Lynn Floyd; J. C. Handley, secretary; W. H. Stults, president; J. J. Pearce, superintendent; Charles E. Terry; and G. M. Crittenden.

Leading Dads' Club activities for the year were officers, SEATED: Charles Blackford, president; Clement S. Fox, second vice president; Cleon Thomasson, treasurer; Durwood Hayes, fourth vice president. STANDING: John T. Branch, secretary; Deryl C. McElreath, third vice president; Raymond Floyd, fifth vice president. NOT PICTURED: Fred Brady, sixth vice president; and Truett Johnson, first vice president.

Work Behind the Scenes

MR. ALDEN L. ARMSTRONG
Business Manager

OFFICE STAFF—TOP ROW: Mrs. Maxine Amstutz, dietician; Mrs. Mary Beebe, Mrs. Mary Ellen Coldiron. BOTTOM ROW: Mrs. Bernice Green, Mrs. Joy Herman, and Mrs. Virginia Kreig, secretaries.

Preparing and serving school lunches is the responsibility of the cafeteria staff, made up of: Mrs. Selma Ransdell, Mrs. Ophie Smith, Mrs. Ouida Rippey, Mrs. Creola Sanders, Mrs. Mattie Herrin, and Mrs. Ruth Christian.

Mr. Albert Hughes and Mr. Arthur Giles, custodians, maintain the appearance and cleanliness of the school.

"B" Band members, Mike Davis, Larry Carson, Bobby Rice, and Susan Fickertt, practice keeping that all-important beat.

Dick Floyd, student, turns teacher for clarinet novice, Marlys Millington.

Ricky Price, Dickie Sherrill, Norman Parsons, Marjorie Putnam, and Charles Beebe show what the "A" Band can do in the way of rhythm.

Dick Floyd points, and says, "See 'C'," to skeptical amigos, Norman Parsons and Alan Childre.

Appreciation of Life

To brighten the hall at Christmas, Jeannie Weersing and Cheryl Jones paint a Madonna and Child on the trophy case.

Pat Hayes takes her charcoal in hand and begins to sketch.

Dick Floyd and Linda Forney hunt up an almost-forgotten song in the music library.

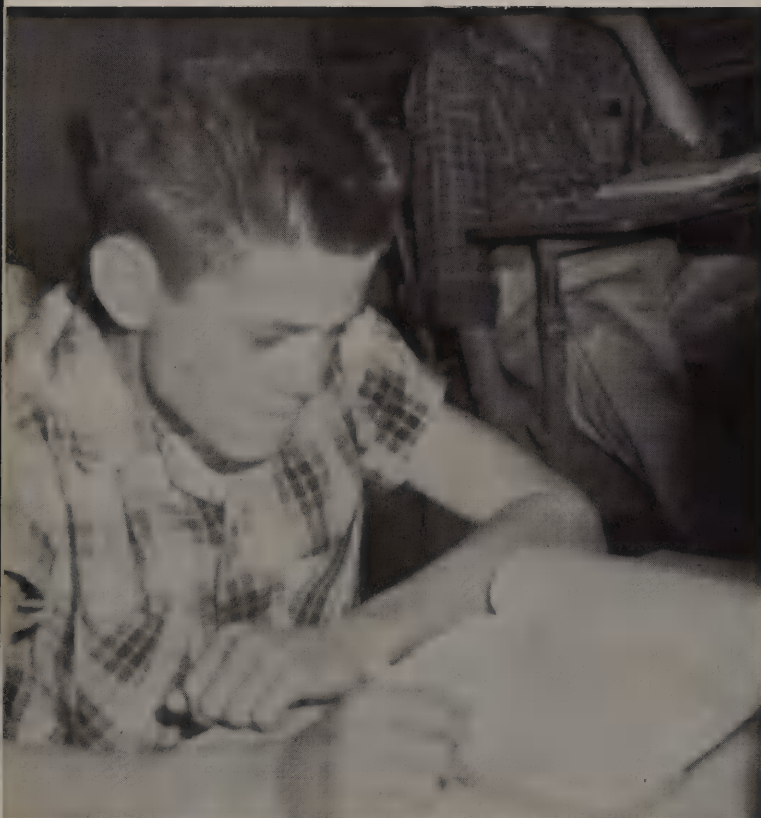

Hold that note! Harmonizing are: Judith Mead, Janet Irons, Becky Rutherford, Sarah Cloud, Donna Ruhl, Marion Hendrix, Margaret Murray, JoAnn Beebe, and Loyce Schweikert, with Mrs. Stanley at the piano.

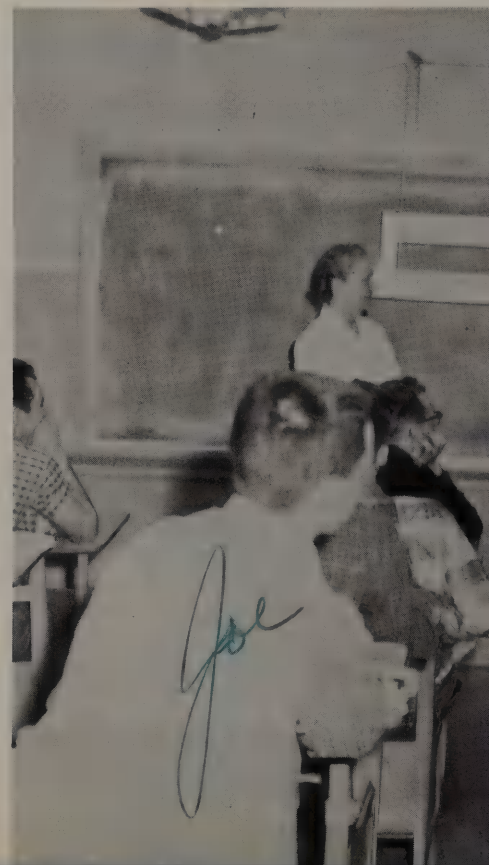

Gerald Skiles has evidently discovered what makes solid geometry different from "plain" plane geometry.

Mathematics Teaches Figures, Formulas, and Logical Thinking

Social Studies Increase Understanding of Our World

Marilyn Hilsen takes her punishment in true Puritan spirit.

Bob Hawkins looks for the newly-formed nation of Egypt-Syria, as Mrs. Ward watches.

Mr. Atkins shows the instrument panel to a future operator.

Texas History students form small groups to discuss modern Texas.

Commercial Arts Prepare for

Nola Crow, Carol Haworth, Jo Ann Hutcherson, and Louise Correll contemplate the wonder of modern business machines.

"Take a letter, Miss Abbott." Dorcas complies.

Concentrating on keeping the records in their practice kits neat and accurate are Donnie Kifer, Janera Lenhart, and Melvin McIntire.

Promising Careers Tomorrow

Second-year typing students, Andy Deer, Jeannie Weersing, Sue Barnett, Ralph Faulkner, and Patsy Jones have come a long way from the "quick brown fox" to invoices and bills of lading.

Kathleen Croly, Gail Grant, Lle Ann Stockton, and Mary Krause turn those "squiggly little lines" into good English, via their knowledge of shorthand.

Practical Application of Skills

Busy hands make orthographic drawings freehand.

Clyde Hensley, Ralph Faulkner, and Bill Deal work on plate assignments in mechanical drawing.

Prize fat steer "Cuddles" stands surrounded by admirers Mr. Walvoord, Vince Coreil, Ronnie Maples, Carson Campbell, and Bobby Petchulat.

Susan Bush looks to the teacher for approval.

"Quoth the Raven, 'Nevermore'." Mrs. Johnson interprets Poe for the class.

Students Also Communicate by Foreign Languages

Debbie Deering writes, "I sit," as she stands at the board.

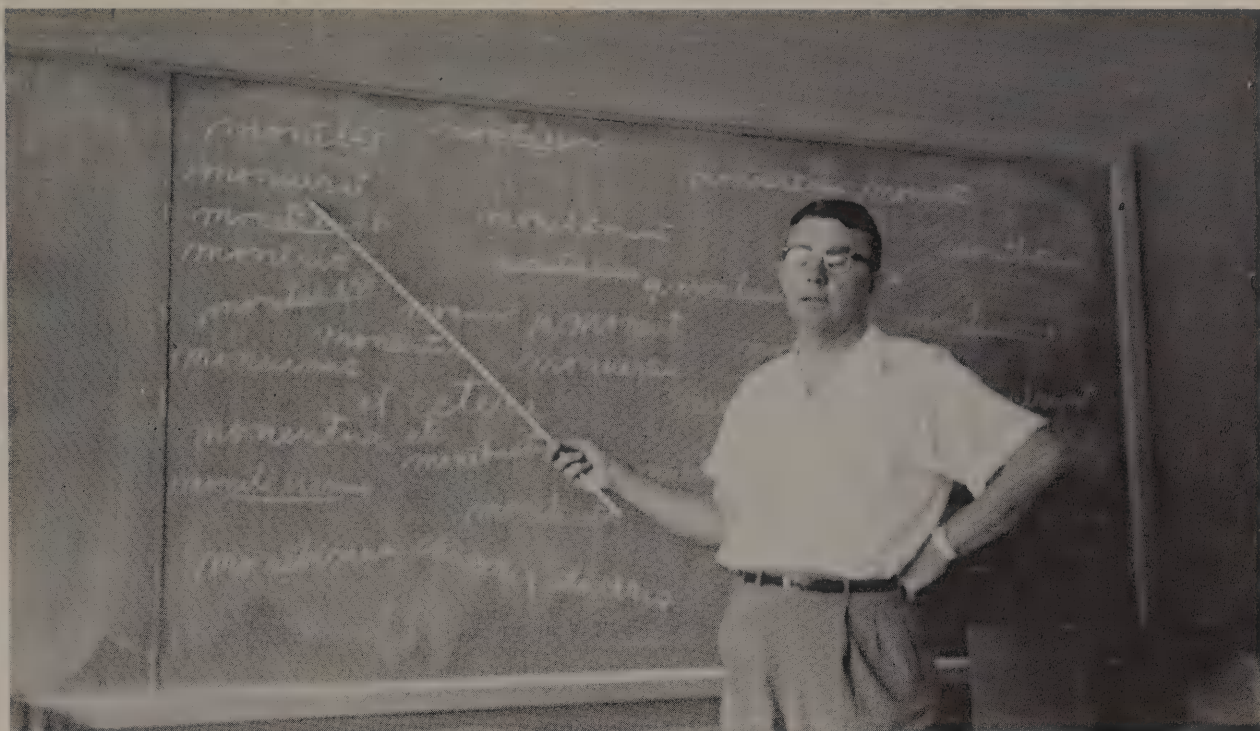

Flay Gardner points out his eighteenth-century alter ego, Jonathan Swift.

David Johnson silently considers following in Silas Marner's footsteps.

"'Amo, amas, amat' was never like this!" sighs second-year student Laquita Littrell.

Mr. Barr teaches the facts of Latin to "friends, Romans, and countrymen."

Marcelo Plesant's native accent urges Andy Beets, Jo Jackson, and Don Fischer to practice more.

and Beverly Reardon a world of information and entertainment.

"All play and no work" makes for a one-sided high school graduate. Education is not merely the accumulation of facts but is the acquiring of the ability to weigh principles and ideas. Richardson students are given the chance to gain basic information as well as to develop mature reasoning through offered courses of science, fine arts, math, physical education, social studies, commercial arts, vocational arts, English, and foreign languages. The classroom is the indispensable link between the faculty and the . . .

Seniors

A glance into the study hall finds Doug Pritzen and Shari Franklin "making good use of their time."

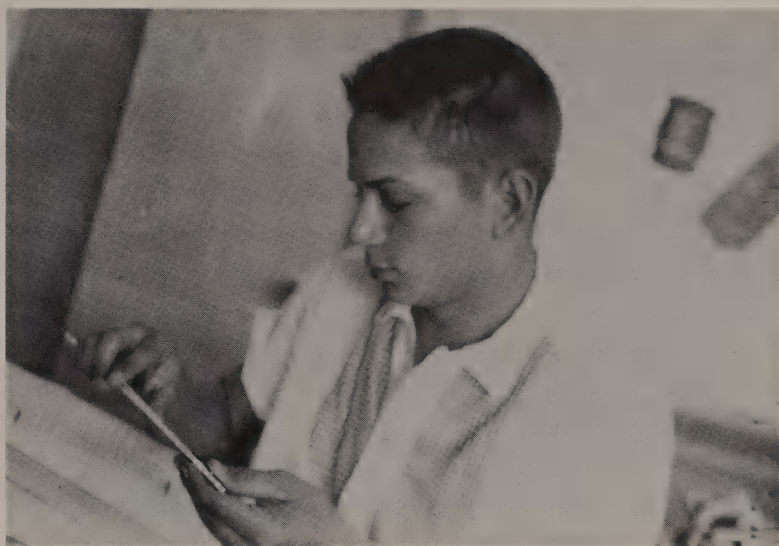

Seniors of 1958 are the first to wear the new, permanent Richardson High School ring.

Senior girls Jeannie Weersing, Laquita Littrell, Sue Barnett, Melba Foster, Nelwyn Berg, and JoAnn Hutcherson intersperse fun and laughter with eating at lunchtime.

COACHES BYNUM AND ATKINS

SEASON

Richardson's Eagles enjoyed the finest season in years as they raced to an 8-3 district championship. This record was compiled despite a schedule that included five other district champions and a rugged slate of conference opponents. Despite this fine overall record the team had its ups and downs, principally due to injuries and the Asian Flu.

Champions

MANAGERS REYNOLDS AND KINDER

HIGHLIGHTS

From this championship team four boys were named to the first All-District Team, and several more won at least honorable mention. Other individual honors include the two leading scorers in the district in Bill Skiles and Joe Deering, who was also named Back of the Week after the Carrollton game.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The Eagles came out clawing by smashing a favored Carrollton eleven, 41-0. The Eagles completely dominated play as Joe Deering scored four times and kicked five extra points. It was Richardson's superiority in the line, however, that led the way to victory.

Richardson continued its winning ways by defeating Lewisville, 12-7. The Eagles, trailing 7-0 at the half, fought back with Bill Skiles scoring twice to take the one touchdown victory. Tremendous defensive play by the line completely stopped Lewisville's running attack, especially in the second half.

The next Friday found the Eagles again coming from behind to win. Grapevine grabbed a quick 19-7 lead only to see it disintegrate before Richardson's furious assault. Skiles, Gilkison, Rutledge, and Deering all scored at least once as the Eagles grabbed a 41-26 victory.

Four wins and no losses became the Eagles' record as they shut out the Plano Wildcats 28-0. Deering's touchdown passes to Turner and Skiles and his ten-yard scoring run led the way.

The Eagles' hope for an undefeated season went a-glimmering as they lost two consecutive games to tough competition. The first loss was to the Bonham Warriors, long a double-A power. The Eagles were just outclassed and could muster only one scoring threat as they

Despite the absence of several starters due to influenza, the Eagles swamped the Crozier Tech Reserves 26-0. Bill Skiles led the touchdown parade with three. He also gained over two hundred yards rushing.

The Bi-District game proved to be an anti-climax as the Eagles fell to Terrell, the eventual state champion. The Eagles were able to mount a passing attack that gained two hundred yards and a brace of touchdowns.

“B” Team

This year’s “B” Team, composed entirely of underclassmen, looked very impressive as they compiled five wins against only one loss. Included were victories over St. Mark’s, Jesuit, McKinney, Seagoville, and Lancaster. Their lone loss was to Mesquite.

Charles Davis was the big gun offensively as he led the team in scoring with 45 points and in rushing with 653 yards. The whole team, however, contributed to an offense that scored 149 points. The defensive team deserves special recognition as they allowed only 32 points, an average of less than one touchdown a game.

Richardson's Golden Eagle five brought the school the first district championship in its history, along with a first place trophy from the McKinney Tournament. The team started slowly by losing 3 of its first 4 games, but soon ran its record to 6 wins—3 losses in the McKinney Tournament. Two successive losses to eventual AAAA district champions in the Dr. Pepper Tournament were the last blemishes on the Eagles, however, as they put together an eleven game winning streak. Sparked by Joe Deering, the district's leading scorer with 89 points in district play and 530 for the season, the Eagles grabbed four district victories in as many tries. Glenn Blackwood and Charley Davis, a pair of hot-shooting sophomores, were also high among the scoring leaders while Bill Skiles was named with Deering to the All-McKinney Tournament team.

Mike Sweeney rebounds against Lancaster as Blair Lee, Pat Michaels, and Marshall Gant came up to assist him.

The “B” Team, paced by high scoring, ineligible transfers Mike Sweeney and Pat Michaels, compiled a record of 15 wins against just 3 losses. In district play the team lost its first game to Lancaster, but they rebounded to take three straight and gain a tie for the championship. All the boys on the squad are underclassmen, which should make Richardson a basketball power in years to come.

Freshmen

The Freshmen added a district championship trophy to the case as they raced to a 12-4 record. Included among their wins were two victories in the Mesquite Tournament as they advanced to the finals before falling to Highland Park, a AAAA school. The team did even better in the first Richardson Invitational Tournament as they took the championship.

RAYMON BYNUM

At the Sports Achievement dinner at the Downtown Y.M.C.A. on February 13, Mr. Bynum and Joe Deering were presented scrolls by the Dallas Sports Writers Association. District championships in football and track were won by Richardson teams coached by Mr. Bynum in his second year as head coach and athletic director of the Richardson schools.

Dallas County Class AA Athlete of the Year

JOE DEERING

Joe was honored by the Sports Writers Association because of his achievement as top scorer in the district in football, scoring an average of 26 points per game in basketball, being the district's top hurdler, a member of the winning sprint relay team, a .399 power-hitting outfielder in baseball and all-district quarterback in football, as well as low as 68 in golf.

Student Council

Decisions to be made, votes to be counted, and many issues to be discussed are just a few problems that meet the Student Council once a week.

Student Council officers are chosen by secret ballot of the student body. A week of campaigning precedes this election. Members of the Council are chosen by students of each home room.

As governing body of the students, the Student Council sponsors many activities and projects which are intended to promote school spirit. The student directory, the first one for R.H.S., was one of these activities.

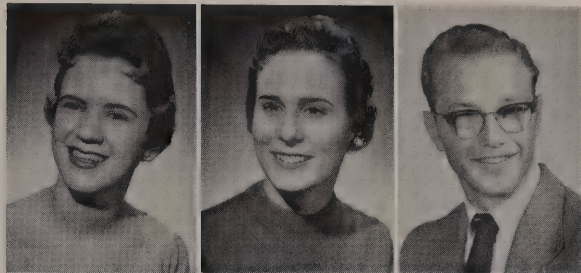

The Council was led by Mrs. Elizabeth Mann this year.

Sue Bryant, Sue Barnett, Dick Floyd, Elam Coney, and Laquita Littrell participate in a discussion concerning plans for a bonfire before our bi-district game.

The Key Club is a very newly organized club in R.H.S. The Key Club is associated with the Kiwanis Club one of the civic organizations of Richardson.

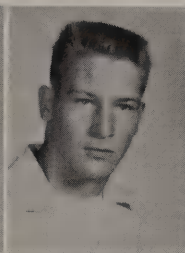

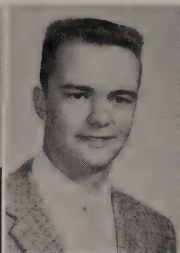

Although the Key Club is a young organization, its many activities have brought prestige to the club and have ranked the club among the more important organizations found in R.H.S. Congratulations to Mr. Chris Walvoord, the Key Club sponsor, and the members of the Key Club for making the beginning of the club such a successful one.

Jo Ann Hutcherson, secretary; Mrs. Marshall, sponsor; Dianne Keil, reporter; Sue Johnson, treasurer; Melba Foster, vice president; Mrs. Simmons, sponsor; Judy Cowan, president; relate the many advantages found in the nursing profession.

"Calling all Nurses" . . . This is a call that the Future Nurses Club plans to heed when they graduate from school.

The objective of the club is to understand the challenge that is offered in the nursing profession today. The requirements and qualifications necessary for becoming a nurse are related through this club. A sense of Service, Security, Success, and Satisfaction is instilled in each member.

Slide Rule Club

Jim Atkins, secretary; Doug Pritzen, vice president; Andy Deer, president; explain the organization of the Slide Rule.

Teaching beginners the use of the slide rule and encouraging others to become more proficient in its use were the purposes of the Slide Rule Club when it was organized in 1956 with Mrs. Elizabeth Mann as the sponsor.

Membership is open to Juniors and Seniors who are taking advanced math courses.

Anyone interested in science is eligible for membership in the Bio-Sci Club.

To help toward building an all around better school by making field trips possible, inviting speakers, encouraging individual participation, are some of the purposes of the Bio-Sci. The club also provides an appropriate time whereby science students may use science equipment personally and learn its intended advantageous uses. During the year the Bio-Sci was sponsored by Mr. Darvin Edge.

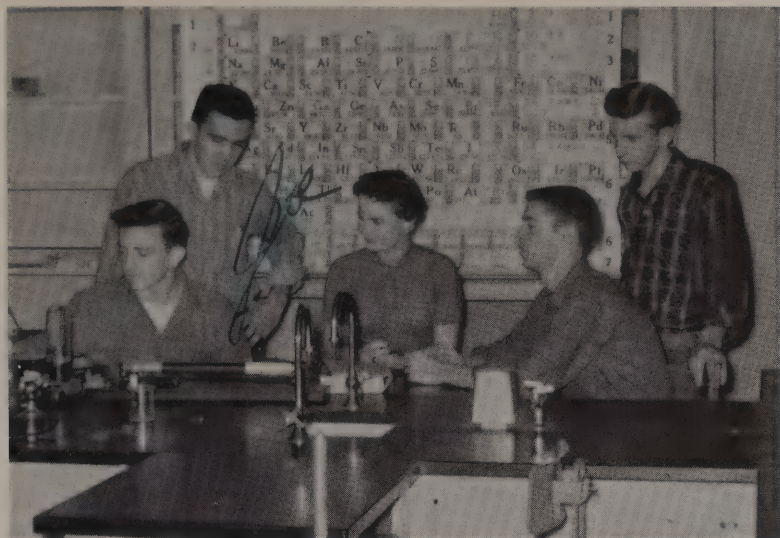

Henry Deer, president; Dianne Keil, vice president; Mary Purnell, secretary-treasurer; and Anne Odum, reporter; prepare a program for the next Bio-Sci meeting.

Kathleen Croly, treasurer; Gail Grant, vice president; Dimple Fletcher, parliamentarian; Sally Reddick, secretary; Nelwyn Berg, president; and Lu Ruth Crawford, program chairman; are officers of the Career Girls.

The Career Girls is an old club with a new name. A club, called simply a Business Club, is its forerunner. The members have one main objective, to broaden their knowledge of the different phases of business. In order to accomplish this goal we have had speakers from some of the leading business schools in Dallas, films of the futures in modern business, and studies of proper secretarial qualities, as program material.

Career Girls

FIRST ROW: Billie Peterson, Mary Robertson, Judy Cowan, Patsy Blackwell, Sue Barnett, Louise Kifer. SECOND ROW: Ada Leigh Everly, Kathleen Croly, Nanette Coffey, Jeannie Weersing, Gail Grant. Hi - Li Club

Kay Morton, president; Virda Zachary, vice president; Dimple Fletcher, secretary-treasurer; and Betsy Larkin, reporter; attempt to learn procedure followed in the Dewey-decimal system.

The Library Club adopted this year a constitution and bylaws and gave itself a permanent name—the Hi-Li Club. The students, through actual participation in library practice, hope to learn procedures and techniques of library work which will provide an opportunity for vocational exploration. They enjoy varied group reading experience and, through their enthusiasm, help to popularize reading among all students.

Sponsoring a book exhibit for neighboring teachers and librarians and having a prominent librarian as a guest speaker highlighted the year's activities.

U. N. Club

Betsy Larkin, secretary; Laura Martin, vice president; Roy King, president; Gene Bartholomew, treasurer; and Mrs. Ward, sponsor; search the map for areas of special importance.

The United Nations Club was organized in order to give interested R.H.S. students an opportunity to participate in the annual National High School Contest on the United Nations. This contest is held each March, with national and state winners announced in early summer. Club members ordered study kits containing the United Nations Charter and a supplementary booklet explaining the special agencies of the U. N. Test questions were taken from factual material covered in these booklets. During the year Mrs. Marilyn Ward served as sponsor of the U. N. Club.

Patsy Jones, vice president; Alice Bell, president; Judy Cowan, secretary; Marilyn Hilsen, treasurer; Jan Payne, chaplain; and Virda Zachary, program chairman; discover many interesting facts as they read through the Bible.

The Bible Club was organized in the latter part of the school year of 1956-57 with Mrs. Leslie Johnson as sponsor. Since that time the club has contributed its services to R.H.S. in the form of planning the Monday morning devotionals, co-operating with the Ministerial Alliance in the Religious Assemblies, and instituting the saying of grace during the Senior High lunch period.

From the Bible Club the Religious Council was organized. There is a member from each church in our school district on the Religious Council. The Religious Council worked closely with these churches and with the Bible Club in giving the school the religious activities it needs and enjoys.

FRONT ROW: Lonna Borah, Lana Allen, Suzie Stone, Beverly Reardon, Nanette Coffey, Kaye Russell. Beaux Arts Club

Nanette Coffey, publicity chairman; Lana Allen, vice president; Suzie Stone, secretary; Beverly Reardon, president; Phyllis Byrd, reporter; and Lonna Borah, treasurer; discuss the decorations for the football banquet.

The Beaux Arts Club was organized in 1957 to fulfill a need for publicity and decorating in the school. During the past two years the club has done projects toward helping build school spirit. This year the club has helped the Muscular Dystrophy Fund by making posters illustrating the need for money for research work on the disease. The club also made the place settings and programs for the football banquet. The club's activities were led by Mrs. Sarah Shields.
